The chairperson may at any time require any person appearing before it in a representative capacity to show that person's authority and qualifications to act in such a representative capacity and to identify the person and interests that are being represented.

(d) Nothing in this section shall prevent the elections commission from soliciting oral remarks from persons present at the meeting or from inviting persons to make presentations to the elections commission on any particular matter

The reason for holding such a meeting or session shall be publicly announced and the vote of each elections commission member on the question of holding a meeting closed to the public shall be recorded and entered into the minutes of the meeting. [Eff JAN 24 2008] (Auth: HRS §11-7.5) (Imp: HRS §92-4) place of the meeting, and in the case of an executive meeting the purpose shall be stated.

(b) The elections commission shall file the notice in the office of the lieutenant governor, and in the office of the elections commission for public inspection, at least six calendar days before the meeting. The notice shall also be posted at the site of the meeting whenever feasible. In the event the notice is filed in the office of the lieutenant governor less than six calendar days before the meeting, the meeting shall be canceled and a notice canceling the meeting will be posted at the place of the meeting, and no meeting shall be held.

(c) The elections commission shall not change the agenda, once filed, by adding items thereto without a two-thirds recorded vote of all members to which the elections commission is entitled; provided that no item shall be added to the agenda if it is of reasonably major importance and action thereon by the elections commission will affect a significant number of persons. Items of reasonably major importance not decided at a scheduled meeting shall be considered only at a meeting continued to a reasonable day and time.

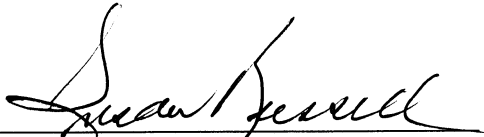

(d) The elections commission shall maintain a list of names and addresses of persons who request notification of meetings and shall mail a copy of the notice to these persons at their last recorded address no later than the time the agenda is filed under subsection (b).
